ACCESS GUIDE

Access Information

At Adelaide Festival, we believe everyone has the right to have access to quality arts and entertainment.

Please check event pages in the guide or on the website for access information and session times. We are offering online access bookings this year, read on for booking instructions. You are still able to book over the phone as well as via email. When booking your ticket over the phone or via email please inform the operator of any access requirements.

Our AF27 program is also available in the following alternative formats:

- Online at adelaidefestival.com.au
  The website has an Accessibility Userway plugin, you will find the icon in the bottom left corner of your screen.

  This enables the website to be customised to suit individual needs and includes font enlargement capabilities, read aloud and options to adjust contrast, saturation, cursor size, fonts, spacing and page views.

- Text Only
- Audio versions, available on request

Booking Tickets

ONLINE

This mode of sale offers wheelchair seats/platforms, Companion Card, Audio Described and Auslan Interpreted prices.

Use this link to automatically apply the 'ACCESS' code to your cart.

Once you select your show, performance date and time, you will see a seat map. Use the + and - symbols in the bottom right corner to zoom. There are small symbols above the seat icon that demonstrate the seat type. You can also see the written price types when you click the individual seat.

The pre-cart message will confirm the seat type you have chosen.

If you are booking a wheelchair seat or space, or a companion card ticket, you will receive a courtesy call from a member of our Customer Experience team to make sure we pass on accurate information to the venue.
